

2012 JUNIOR
POLICE ACADEMY

Seventeen Indianola and Norwalk children spent the week of June 18th - 22nd learning what it really means to be a police officer. The Indianola Police Department along with the Parks and Recreation Department offered a 5 day youth academy class designed for ages 9 - 11. During the week the recruits learned about the inner workings of a police department. Demonstrations of all the equipment used including computers, tasers, patrol cars, etc. Recruits were able to participate in solving a crime by using fingerprints and foot castings. They learned the importance of saying "No" to drugs and how to deal with bullies and what to do when seeing someone bullied. They were also given instruction on bicycle and internet safety. Students toured the Indianola Police Department, Warren County Dispatch and Warren County Sheriff's offices. Each student completing the course received a certificate of completion during their graduation ceremony. Officers and staff involved in the week were: Officer Mesha Wagner, Officer Brad Metcalf, Officer Randal Schultz, Officer Justin Keller, Officer Siemens, Sgt. Scott Dwyer, Clerical Staff Rachelle Baker and Administrative Assistant Pat Allsup.
